

In collaboration with

4 Course Graduate Cohort*
 leading to
 Dual Certification in Special Education
New Cohort to Begin in August

Suffolk’s Edge Teacher Center and OWL Teacher Center, in collaboration with Western Suffolk BOCES, and NYSUT’s ELT and will be offering a cohort for certified teachers that can lead to a dual Special Education Certification. The certification program requires the completion of four courses, a 3-hour Autism seminar, and successful completion of the Content Specialty Test. All teachers should refer to NYS website for any additional individual certification requirements or check with State Ed prior to enrollment.

Teachers can opt to take any or all of the graduate classes (for credit) independent of the certification requirements*

Varied course scheduling from August 2011 to June 2012

Inclusion: Education for All	Monday-Friday 8am to 5pm	August 15 th to August 19 th
Cooperative Learning for Students with Disabilities	TBD	Fall 2011
Curricular Assessment and Behavior Management	TBD	Winter 2012
Methods and Materials for Students with Disabilities	TBD	Spring 2012

Class Location: Western Suffolk BOCES Conference Center 31 Lee Avenue Wheatley Heights NY 11798 for the August, 2011 course

Cost: The first class is a total of $700 inclusive of books and the last three classes require you to purchase books on your own. Registration and payment of $645 is due to NYSUT prior to taking each course. A $55 site fee will be charged at the first class.

To Register: Go to www.nysut.org/elt and register through My Learning Plan. For assistance call 800-528-6208.

Questions

Members of Suffolk’s Edge Teacher Center

Angelique Johnson- Dingle
 ajohnson@wsboces.org
 631 254-0107

Members of OWLTeacher Center

Jennifer Bova
 owlcenter@lindenhurstschools.org
 jbova@lindenhurstschools.org